

Commissioner Vivian Laxton

Vivian served as public information administrator for Carroll County Government. Before entering the public sector, she helped to launch the Frederick County edition of The Gazette, first as news editor and later editor. She sits on the board of the Walkersville High School Band Boosters and is an active member of Brook Hill United Methodist Church. She earned a Bachelor's Degree in Communication Arts from Hood College and has completed a Master's Degree in Strategic Public Relations from the George Washington University. In 1999, she was named a Person to Watch by Frederick Magazine. Vivian lives in Walkersville with her husband and two children.
